Winter Writing Workshop (Grades 6th – 10th)

It is absolutely essential that students in the middle and early high-school begin to equip themselves with stronger writing skills. The Winter Writing Workshop is an 8-day intensive program designed to do just that. With focused curriculum, this workshop will help students become better critical thinkers and writers. Specifically, it will help sharpen evidence-based writing skills which are integral for Common Core learning and for success on the standardized exams as well as overall academic success.

Class Schedule

Dec 20-23, Dec 27-30 (Monday to Thursday)

Level 1: 9:00 AM – 11:00 AM

Level 2: 11:00 AM – 1:00 PM

Classic Novel Book Club (Grades 6th – 10th)

YSI's Classic Novel Book Club is an 8-day intensive reading group that will introduce students to timely, thought-provoking novels, engage them in habitual reading, and help them articulate their responses. Students will complete two novels during winter break.

Class Schedule

Dec 20-23, Dec 27-30 (Monday to Thursday)

Level 1: 11:00 AM – 1:00 PM

Level 2: 9:00 AM – 11:00 AM

College Planning Program

College Planning Program is offered to high school freshmen, sophomores and juniors during the winter break. Led by experienced counselors, this program will provide students with guidance through the college-planning process.

Students will meet for six two-hour sessions during the two-week winter break. Guided activities will help students understand the college admission process and construct their plans for college and beyond.

Topics Covered

- Overview of College Admissions: What do colleges look for?
- College Majors & Careers: Explore majors and possible careers
- Extracurricular Activities: Participate in meaningful activities and create a resume
- Making Your Summer Count: Search for pre-collegiate programs, internships and college courses
- UC and Common Application: Learn how to write the college application personal statement
